2016 Excellence in Distance Learning Awards

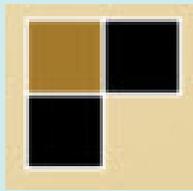

Digital Education and the Provost's Office announced the winners of the 2016 Awards for Excellence in Digital Learning. You can view a list of all five winners here. Awardees will be recognized at the Provost's Faculty Award Convocation on April 25.

Action Plan for Digital Education – Implementation Teams

Two implementation teams generated by the Action Plan for Digital Education are convening this month. Groups focused on building college-level teams and creating a campus-wide digital education community will provide their recommendations by early summer with the intent that implementation can commence in the fall.

CMD Team to Help with DE Business Planning

One of Purdue's Council for Manager Development teams will assist with the development of a digital education business plan for Purdue. CMD is a two-year program centered on managerial skill development, professional networking and the opportunity to research, analyze and make recommendations regarding University matters.

The digital education CMD team will report its findings and recommendations by the end of the Fall 2016 term.

New Video Captioning Vendor

A new vendor, cielo24, has been contracted to provide video closed captioning services for Purdue. To meet universal access standards video materials must be captioned. Captioning by cielo24 is searchable, their turnaround is fast, and their prices are competitive. To obtain a quote for captioning services, contact Tom Gehret at thomas.gehret@cielo24.com.

Supporting Humanities Online Research and Education (SHORE) Symposium

On May 5 Purdue will host the first symposium of Supporting Humanities Online Research and Education (SHORE). This one-day meeting will include morning breakout sessions on digital research in the humanities and afternoons sessions on digital editing and curation and digital pedagogy. Invited speakers will be from institutions throughout the US and Canada. You can see the program flier here.
